

Book Related Devotional Ideas

These are devotional starter ideas for you to add your own illustrations, Bible verse references, and so on. They are kind of like writing prompts for devotions.

I trust they will inspire you to write!

- Can Read You Like a Book – Focusing on our witness for Christ and how others can read it by how we act and what we say.
- Leaping off the Page – Allowing your faith to come to life.
- On the Same Page or Playing it by the Book – Lining up your life by the Bible.
- Read my Lips – Focusing in on our speech and how others read us by what we say.
- Story Telling – Focusing in on sharing our testimony of Salvation.
- Stranger than Fiction – Our “peculiar” life as a Christian (1 Peter 2:9)
- Page Turners – Striving to be an avid reader of the Bible.
- This is Our Story – From the hymn, “Blessed Assurance”. It’s all about praising the Lord, which should be our “story” as a Christian. Everything we say and do should go back to the glory of God.
- Write it Upon my Heart – (Proverbs 3:3; Proverbs 3:3; Deuteronomy 11:18)
- Written in Red -Focusing in on the words of Jesus.

- In Character - Looking to the character of Jesus as our example.
- This Book of the Law – Joshua 1:1-9

Discussion Questions for this passage.

- In the Scripture passage, what had just happened which made the need for Joshua to lead the people? (Joshua 1:1)
- What did God say he would do for Joshua? (Joshua 1:5)
- What did God tell Joshua to be strong and courageous for? (Joshua 1:7)
- What was Joshua commanded to do with the book of the law? (Joshua 1:8)
- How should we treat the Bible?
- What is it about the Bible that makes you want to read it?