

Fall Devotional Ideas

Abundant Gifts of Autumn

God gives us some wonderful things in the fall. Just look around and you will see beautiful leaves and stunning views. What gifts do we give to others? Not maybe physical or material things, but what kind of a difference are we making in people's lives? How can we step in and be a blessing?

Allowing the Leaves to Fall

Allowing the things that no longer enhance our Christian life to fall by the wayside. It could be relationships, habits, or anything that doesn't reflect Christ.

Apple Picking Time

How do we choose our words? Are they rotten? Got worms in them? Their growth stunted? Diseased?

Apples and Temptations

Focusing in on the story of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden and the temptation they faced. How do we stand up to those "apples a day" ---- those daily temptations?

Bringing in the Harvest

Sharing our stories of Salvation. “Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.” Luke 10:2

Burst of Brilliance

The Lord brings out the brilliance in our lives for His glory when we allow the working of the Holy Spirit. It brings forth all that beautiful and colorful fruit of the Spirit. We have to be willing to obey the Word. We should be that pop of color that the world sees.

Getting into the Game of Life

It's football season. Are we ready to tackle life physically, spiritually, and mentally? Are we spending time getting pumped up for the game?

Gleaning

Learning to separate the shaft from the grain. Learning to know what is valuable and what isn't. Focus on the story of Ruth.

Leaves Falling. Autumn Calling.

What's calling you? There are so many attributes of fall that call to us and say that fall is here. Crisp change in weather. Beautiful leaves. Pumpkin everything. New Starbucks treats. Hayrides. Bonfires. Face it. Fall is fun, but what calls us? Are we listening to the leading of the Holy Spirit? Are we open to what God has for us in His Word? Are we anxious and waiting for those blessings?

Making Applesauce

The process of life. Peeling, cutting, heat, and putting through the sieve. “And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.” Romans 8:28

New Seasons

Seasons come and go. How do we deal with them? What's new in our lives? What do we have to leave behind in the old season? Do we take the Lord with us through our move to a new season or do we try to handle it all by ourselves?

Pumpkin Spice and Everything Nice

We love pumpkin on and in everything when fall hits. Sometimes those recipes are great. Other times they are a fail. What are we doing to spice up the lives of others? What are we doing to spice up our own Christian life? Are the things we say and do “nice” additions?

Traditions and Faith

There are all types of traditions that families have at the holidays. Sitting around the Thanksgiving table is probably different for every family. What we serve is different. How we interact is different. Are we leaving Christ in our celebrations? Do we have any “faith” traditions? Do we need to start some?
